

My Classmate

His name is Jethro. He is seven years old. He is short and thin. He likes watching TV. It makes him happy. He lives in Sha Tin. He comes to school by school bus.

He is lazy. He doesn't like doing housework. He is honest. He never tells lies. He is helpful. He always helps people.

There are four people in his family. Jethro's father is a fireman. He puts out fires. His mother is a nurse. She looks after sick people. He has one sister.

He is good at Chinese. He is good at writing poems. I am happy to be Jethro's classmate. I also want to be his friend.
