

Last year, Mimi went to a pet shop and her family said she could buy a pet. When she heard that she felt over the moon so she bought a dog. It was grey and weighed thirty-four pounds.

After she bought the dog, she went back home. Mimi played with her dog. They were both on top of the world. They played fetch and catch. When Mimi was studying, the dog slept right next to her.

Now, the dog has gained nine pounds and it is naughty. Mimi's blood is boiling because the dog is biting her slipper.

Next, Mimi will teach the dog how to be good. Mimi will forgive her.

By Ho Chun Lok Morris P.3

