

A Day at the Theme Park

20th September 2024

Yesterday was my birthday. I was over the moon. My mum and I went to Disneyland and we played a lot of games. First, we played on the Ferris Wheel. I was on cloud nine.

In the afternoon, Mum and I played on some exciting rides. I was tall enough to play. Then, we played on some cool rollercoasters. We were excited. Next, we played on a Pirate Ship. We were scared but we felt happy when I was sitting on the rides.

After that, we were hungry. My mum went to the tuck shop to buy some food. I was pleased. My mum said, 'May I have two tomato hamburgers and a packet of fries, please?' Meanwhile, I took some pebbles to throw at the ducks in the pond. I was being naughty.

Suddenly, my mum looked at me and said, 'Don't do that!' But I didn't stop. Mum shouted, 'Don't throw pebbles at the ducks! They will get hurt!' I felt sad and said, 'Sorry, mum!'
